Summarize the Sunday message

1. What insights do you have or what applications are you working on from the Sunday message or the Transformation Journal?
2. How can you help someone understand what we mean by being an incarnational church or living an incarnational life? What does this mean in plain language?
3. Is it a very big change for you to move from thinking that the Christian life is about turning away from things secular so you can be holy, to making all life sacred? What is the difference between the two ways of thinking? What are the implications?
4. What “seeds” of blessing have you been able to plant in the lives of people this week? Or how can you be better prepared to do so?
5. What aspect of the DNA of the church (i.e. the church is missional, relational and incarnational) makes the most sense to you? Which aspect do you have the most trouble with?
