

Learn Life from Jesus
1 Corinthians 13

Who is your teacher?

One of the major transitions of life is to recognize who has taught us and then to evaluate the results in us of their teaching.

The Life I want to live.... 1 Corinthians 13

Agape (Self-giving love)

The kind of life that Jesus lived.

Jesus lived the most magnificent life every lived.

To learn life from Jesus is the greatest opportunity I will ever have.

The opportunity far outweighs any cost.

Being a part of this re-launched church has nothing to do with being religious and everything to do with people who want to learn life from Jesus.

Jesus has made a way for us to live life to the full

We learn that way by being his apprentice.

How to become an apprentice of Jesus

Believe...

That Jesus is the most magnificent person who every lived.

Understand the opportunity

As long as you think anything may be more valuable than learning life from Jesus, then you cannot learn from him.

Ask...

Express your desire to see Jesus more fully as he is.

Dwell in his word

Saturate your mind with the written Gospels

Find groups of apprentices and become deeply involved with them.

Decide...

We become life students of Jesus by deciding.

What do you need to do to act on this decision?

Who do you know that would benefit, not from being religions, but from learning life from Jesus?
